

TIERNEY L. COREN

8 Loomis Street
Little Falls, New York
Home phone: (315) 508-5008
Email: corent093@herkimer.edu

OBJECTIVE: Entry level position as mobile website designer, developer, or software quality assurance member

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

2009 – Present

Little Falls Public Library

- Wii Program Host (weekly, volunteer,) Little Falls, NY
- Chess Program Founder and Host (weekly, volunteer,) Little Falls, NY

KEY SKILLS

---

- Working knowledge of latest web technologies, including:
  - HTML5's new semantic elements
  - New web APIs, such as drag and drop, web workers, and geolocation
  - New CSS3 selectors, properties, and additional features such as @font-face and grids
  - Frameworks and JavaScript libraries such as Twitter's Bootstrap and jQuery
- Skillful with PhotoShop and Dreamweaver CS6, as well as other Creative Suite applications
- Knowledgeable contributor to new and emerging technologies, such as Adobe Brackets
- Seasoned in text editor coding (especially using Sublime Text 2 and Vim)
- Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox power user

EDUCATION

---

|                |  |
|----------------|--|
| 2/10-2/11      | High school study, Brigham Young University Independent StudyGPA: 4.0  |
| 10/11-4/12     | General Educational Development Diploma, received 2012   |
| 7/12 – Present | AA Liberal Arts, Herkimer County Community College, expected December 2014GPA: 4.0, Major: Communication Arts: New Media |

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND ACTIVITIES

---

- Winner of the Utica Public Library's Young People's Poetry Contest in 2009.
- Received food handler card for the lunch program at City Academy, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

REFERENCES: Available upon request